
The word alone: bank three unrelated meanings a financial institution a bench to sit on the ground beside a river with context
The word inside its sentence — the neighbors vote
“The bank was full of people waiting” people + waiting → branch office “Mary went to the bank” went to + Mary → office… or riverbank? both readings stay alive Contextualization — the meaning of every word is re-read in the light of all the words around it